5-8 October 2017

Bicentenary Celebration of the Birth of Bahá’u’lláh

‘Irfán Colloquium aims at promoting deeper and systematic studies in the scriptures of the world's religions from the Bahá’í perspective, as well as verities, fundamental principles of the belief system and the sacred writings of the Bahá’í Faith, the interface between the Bahá’í Faith and various religious traditions and schools of thought. Bazm-i- ‘Irfán includes musical performances. Participants in the ‘Irfán Colloquium enjoy a collegial environment that provides an opportunity for dialogue, networking and team-building among those engaged in Bahá’í studies. It is also a unique occasion for all those participating in this gathering to meet and associate with researchers and scholars and benefit from their presentations. Those attending at the ‘Irfán Colloquium receive a gift set of the ‘Irfán publications.

Presentations include: A Review of the Details of the Báb's Commentary on the Surih of Josph, Bahá’u’lláh’s Life and Mission , The Advent of the Twin Manifestations, the Bab and Baha'u'llah: at the Threshold of a Global civilization, On the mystery of Consciousness and the soul, Exploring the neuroanatomical basis of consciousness and insights from the Baha'i writings, The Kitáb-i-Íqán (The Book of Certitude), Revolutionizing the Concepts of: Religion, Eschatology and Theology, The station of women in Islam and Baha’i Faith, Station and Mission of Baha’u’llah as elucidated by `Abdu’l-Baha and Shoghi Effendi, The Countenance of the Blessed Beauty in the Mirror of Mawlud Tablets, Examination of spirit through metaphor and analogy, Examination of the concept of the human heart through metaphor and analogy, Complexity Science and Bahá’í Economics: A Correlative Analysis, The significance of the Birth of Baha’u’llah on Western Classical Music, The Bahá’í Faith, Violence, and Nonviolence.
