The ʻIrfán Colloquium is a forum on studies related to the fundamental principles of the Bahá'í beliefs, the Writings of the Founders of the Bahá'í Faith, the interface between the Bahá'í Faith and the current intellectual and religious trends, and the main challenges in human society. It takes place in an informal and collegial atmosphere which provides a unique opportunity and friendly atmosphere for meeting and associating with those interested in systematic Bahá'í studies. There will also be intervals of musical performances. Participants receive a free set of current ʻIrfán publications.

Each session starts in the evening of the first day and ends after lunch on the last day. Only the sessions at Acuto end after dinner on the last day. June 28th is for optional group tour.
