The ʿIrfán Colloquium is a forum on Bahá'í studies in the fundamental principles of the Bahá'í beliefs, Writings of the Founders of Bahá'í Faith, interface between the Bahá'í Faith and the current intellectual and religious trends, as well as the main challenges in human society. It takes place in an informal and collegial atmosphere which provides a unique opportunity and friendly atmosphere for meeting and associating with those interested in deeper and systematic Bahá'í studies. There will also be intervals of musical performances. Participants receive a free set of current ʿIrfán publications.

Each session starts in the evening of the first day and ends after lunch on the last day. Only the Persian session at Acuto Center ends after dinner on 4 July 2017.
