The ‘Irfán Colloquium programs include presentations on systematic studies of the fundamental principles of the Bahá'í beliefs, the Writings of the Founders of the Bahá'í Faith, the interface between the Bahá'í Faith and the current intellectual and religious trends, and the main challenges in human society. There will also be intervals of musical performances. The ‘Irfán Colloquia take place in an informal and collegial atmosphere which provides a unique opportunity and friendly atmosphere for meeting and associating with those interested in systematic Bahá'í studies. Participants receive a free set of current ‘Irfán publications.

Each session starts in the evening of the first day and ends after lunch on the last day. Only the sessions at Acuto end after dinner on the last day and 26 June is for optional group tour.
