The ʻIrfán Colloquium is a friendly gathering held in an informal and collegial atmosphere, which provides a unique opportunity for meeting and associating with those interested in systematic Bahá'í studies. The Colloquium program includes presentations by scholars on systematic studies in fundamental principles of Bahá'í beliefs, the Writings of the Central Figures of the Bahá'í Faith, and the interface between the Bahá'í Faith and current intellectual and religious trends. On the occasion of the Bicentennial Celebrations of the birth of the Bab, the program also includes presentations related to his Writings. Participants of the ʻIrfán Colloquium receive a free set of recent ʻIrfán publications. The program starts in the evening of the first day.
